EXPLANATIONS

1. The date of our first edition is enclosed in brackets following the date of copyright.
2. A space is left before each title to enable the purchaser to indicate the number of copies ordered.
3. Books cannot be lent, nor exchanged.
4. We will be glad to make good any error on our part.
5. The word "Revised" is no longer used. The style of embossing is indicated as Braille Grade 1 (full spelling), and Braille Grade 1½ (with contractions). Books in this list are understood to be in Grade 1½, except those that are indicated to be in Grade 1.
6. When payment accompanies order, always include postage, and if the amount so included is appreciably more or less than the actual postage, the difference will be returned in stamps or a bill rendered for further remittance.
7. Be sure to indicate whether you wish the shipment made by express, freight, or parcel post.

WRITING SLATE

We make both Braille and New York point post card slates, pocket slates, and desk slates. The desk is mounted on a substantial board with a clip at the top which holds the paper in place. The slate has pins on the bottom which fit in corresponding holes on either side of the board so that as the lines of writing in the slate are filled, it can be lowered to the next series of holes, and so on, without removing the paper. Braille slates are made up with .90x.90x.250x.400 spacing. The packing weight of the post card slate is 4 oz., pocket slate 6 oz., and the desk slate 2 lbs. Prices are f.

o. b. Louisville, and by consulting your postmaster, you can ascertain amount of postage to include with your remittance. A stylus is included with each slate.
